

Non-Disclosure Agreement

This Non-Disclosure and Confidentiality Agreement (this "Agreement") is entered into as of 8/27/2019 (the "Effective Date") by and between MyHydrationPack LLC, as a Michigan Limited Liability Company ("Hydration Pack, Consumer and Festival Brand") having an address of 353 Aspinwall, Troy, MI 48098 and Global Engineering, Inc., a Michigan Corporation, ("Consultant Water Filtration") having an address of 10312 N. Holly Rd., Holly, MI 48442.

The parties are exploring a potential business relationship (the "Transaction"). In connection with the Transaction, each party, their respective affiliates and their respective directors, officers, employees, agents or advisors (collectively, "Representatives") may provide or gain access to certain confidential and proprietary information. A party disclosing its Confidential Information to the other party is hereafter referred to as a "Disclosing Party." A party receiving the Confidential Information of a Disclosing Party is hereafter referred to as a "Receiving Party." In consideration of the mutual promises and covenants set forth in this Agreement, the parties hereby mutually agree as follows:

RECITALS

WHEREAS, , client, has caused to have both aforementioned consultants to perform either a water quality study, or devise a filter product and protocol; and

WHEREAS, both the aforementioned client, and each of the aforementioned consultants desire to have their respective information be made confidential as to one another, and otherwise disclosed not only with the approval of client, but also with the approval as between the aforementioned consultants regarding each consultant's own work, which shall include but not limited to water testing and results, and filter product source and specification (hereinafter "Confidential Information").

USE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

1. Whether made available to Consultant(s) in writing, orally or by observation, the Consultant(s) shall receive and maintain all Information regarding Client's water testing and results, and filter product source and specification in confidence ("Confidential Information"), and shall not disclose any Confidential Information to any third party for any reason without the prior written consent of Harold Harrington.

2. The Consultant(s) shall not use any Confidential information, including but not limited to any drawings of any machinery or processes, chemical formulas or other technical or business information, or any know-how, for its/his/her own commercial or pecuniary advantage, except as specifically agreed-to in writing by, and as between Consultants in furtherance of performing the consulting services for client.

Limitation:

For clarification, nothing in the paragraph immediately above is intended to prevent Consultants from conducting similar or exact processes or selling filter product in the consultant's normal course of business, but is only required to obtain client's written approval as it relates to consultant's using client's specific confidential information in a material fashion for pecuniary gain.

3. The Consultants each to the other expressly agrees it shall not attempt to reverse engineer any machinery, compositions, processes or samples provided or disclosed to it by the other.

4. The Consultant understands that in addition to certain Confidential Information that may be provided to it directly for the purpose of enabling or assisting in the performance of the Consulting Services, (client____) also may have access to other Confidential Information not related to the Consulting Services by virtue of its/his/her access to the Global's companies' facilities.

The Consultant expressly agrees the confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations herein apply equally to Confidential Information provided to it intentionally, as well as Confidential Information known, observed or discovered by it incidentally or through access to the Global's companies' facilities.

5. The Consultant(s) shall not use any Confidential Information in any way whatsoever in contravention of the Purpose of this Agreement.

6. If the Consultant(s) is to or will provide experimental or research services using any Confidential Information, then Consultants' methods and records shall be completely transparent to each Consultant to the other, and on request Consultant(s) shall provide to and each to the other, access to or copies of all its/his/her records, methods, processes, experiments, data, test results, and all other information relating to the use of any Confidential Information or the performance of the consulting services for client.

7. The Consultant(s) shall maintain adequate safeguards to ensure that Confidential Information is disclosed only to those of its/his/her personnel essential to performing the consulting services to client, as well as to ensure against disclosure of Confidential Information to third parties. The Consultant(s) shall obtain from all its/his/her personnel to whom Confidential Information will or may be disclosed their express written agreement to comply with confidentiality terms at least as stringent as those contained in this Agreement, with respect to Confidential Information.

8. All Confidential Information in whatever form, as well as any improvements or modifications thereof regardless of who made them, shall be and remain the sole and exclusive property of Client, and shall be returned to Client as appropriate within a reasonable time on request. In any event, within 30 days after the consulting services are concluded, the Consultant(s) shall return to Client as appropriate all Confidential Information still in its his/her possession, and shall not retain any copies thereof.

9. The confidentiality obligations in this Agreement shall continue and remain in force with respect to particular Confidential Information for a period of five (5) years beginning on the date of disclosure of that particular Confidential Information to the Consultant, regardless of the expiration of this Agreement, unless that particular Confidential Information:

- a) Is or comes into the possession of the Consultant through independent means unrelated to any of the Companies or to any party owing an obligation of confidentiality to any of the Companies;
- b) Is, or becomes publicly known, other than through a wrongful act of the Consultant; or
- c) Is independently developed by the Consultant, provided the person or persons involved in developing the same has/have not had access to Confidential Information.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the parties hereto, as of the day and year first above written, and do represent that they are duly authorized to execute this agreement with the express authority of their respective companies and legal interests.
